OFFICIAL UNDER INVESTIGATION

HARRY K. SMITH: "An official of the Central Intelligence Agency is under investigation for possible violation of security regulations. Hans Tofte of the 1600 block of 35th Street, N.W., put his house up for sale earlier this summer. And unknown to Tofte, another CIA employee, Kenneth Slockum, inspected that house as a potential buyer. Well, Slockum noticed some classified documents in one room of the house, reported that apparent infraction of security rules to security officials of the CIA, who later went to Tofte's home and took the material into custody.

"Well, now, Tofte says that $19,000 worth of jewels belonging to his wife are missing from his home."
